

Founded in 2021, Envirium LifeScience is a dynamic Belgian industrial group specializing in the production and processing of natural raw materials for the food, cosmetic, and healthcare industries. Deeply committed to sustainability, Envirium focuses on enhancing the livelihoods of farmers through responsible agricultural practices, including certified organic cultivation, particularly via their activities in Madagascar, Congo, and Papua New Guinea. The group prioritizes complete product traceability to meet the evolving demands of European and global markets. Beyond its innovative industrial processes, Envirium also invests in social and environmental projects to support local communities and biodiversity conservation efforts.

To support their growth, we are looking for a Finance Manager (M/F).
